Sommer Wilson

There is an angel flying above,
Watching over me with bundles of love.
She is so wonderful, kind and dear,
Thinking of her brings a tear.

She lost her battle overnight,
While in bed sleeping tight.
Oh how she was so grand,
I will forever miss holding her hand.

Thank you for making me cakes and desserts.
I know that you no longer have to hurt.
I loved you so much and still do,
Because I could never picture life without you,

You still appear in my dreams,
Singing all the songs you used to sing.
Even though cancer took you away,
Very close to my heart you will always stay,

I still remember the day I heard the news,
Thinking no one could ever fill your shoes.
My heart is now filled with sorrow,
Knowing I won't see you tomorrow.

Up in Heaven, your wings you have gained,
While I, here on Earth, am still pained.
Through those Pearly Gates, your soul will sway,
And I know that I will see you again someday.
