

Little Things
By: Ellington Crabtree

Ever since I was little
You've shown me the light
You taught me how to spell my name
And what shoe was left from right
And I know it's hard
To watch us grow
But it's alright
You've taught me everything I know

It's the little things
In my life
Every single memory
Wants to make me cry
I know, it may not seem like much to you
But all you were trying to say is, "I love you"
It's the little things

You taught me how to braid my hair
To say my prayers at night
To dance around like I didn't care
Cause' I knew you would make it the best time

It's the little things
In my life
Every single memory
Wants to make me cry
I know, it may not seem like much to you
But all you were trying to say is, "I love you"

The notes inside my lunch bag
Blowing me a kiss
To show me while I was away
How much I was missed
And even though it's hard to find the words to speak my mind
You told me to listen to my heart
And it works every time

It's the little things
In my life
Every single memory
Makes me wanna cry
I know, it may not seem like much to you
But all I'm trying to say is, "I love you"
It's the little things
