

Papaw

By: Heather Purlee

There is not a day that goes by where I'm not reminded of you Every old memory and little things that I do in many ways I was and still am your mini me
I cannot imagine anything better I could be.
I am not the same since you have been away
I had a hard time when my mind decided to stray
It made me feel like I was drowning in a pool
You left when I was just ten years old
And it left your place in my heart cold
I don't remember the sound of your voice
If I had the option I would make the choice
To go back in time and be there for you I'm sorry back then I didn't know what to do Cancer is the culprit your death is the crime I wish the doctors would find a way for it to do its time
I know it's too late for me and you
But other people matter too
It's not just about us and that's ok
I know that is exactly what you would say
